We're fully aware of the ethical debates surrounding fur, but we aim to represent a broad range of views on all topics.

For many, fur coats are the ultimate in glamour and images of iconic Hollywood stars spring to mind. We think that Glamourbelles selling vintage fur coats, jackets, stoles, hats, gilets and bags is very aptly named.

It was started by Annabel Spooner (an ex buyer for Joseph) and Fi Sangster.

Glamour Belles

Many of the furs have labels from the finest Couturiers and include great names from the fashion houses of America – one of their best finds was from Hartnell. The aim of Glamourbelles is to bring back the glamour of the golden age of fashion and combine it with a modern twist.

The furs are relined with stunning silks from Paris and Milan and remodelled where necessary. The coats start from £750 and the vintage crocodile, alligator and lizard handbags from £395. They are also happy to remodel clients own fur coats.

Should you be tempted, Glamourbelles are having a two day Gala on 26th and 27th January at Bruce Oldfield, 34 Beauchamp Place, SW1 from 11am until 6pm and just to put you in the mood there will be champagne too!

We thought it worth mentioning that Designer Alterations also have a newly launched fur remodelling service – so if Granny's fur is languishing in the cupboard, you could give one of your cashmere's a face lift and add fur cuffs and collars, turn it into a gilet or even a handbag? At least it will be used and not have to endure a lifetime of neglect and moth balls! Prices start from £50.00 Designer Alterations
